—Mr. W. D. Perley, M.P., has this week been visiting his constituents at Tonehwood and other points north of the Qu'Appelle river, —A charge of forgery was given a preliminary hearing yesterday before Messrs. G. S. Davidson and A. M. Melane, J. P.'s, and adjourned until tomorrow.

—Much anxiety is felt in regard to the health of Prof Tanner. When he went on board ship for England it was feared that he might not live to the end of the voyage. Nothing has been heard from him since.

—The Ideal concert on Thursday evening of last week was well attended. Every piece on the program was good. When all was was really excellent it would seem invicious to refer to any in particular, but the splendial basso voice of Mr. Ferte was commented upon by all.

—Major L. D. Little has kindly consented to deliver a lecture on "Sporting Reminiscences and Country Life in England," in the immigrant building, on the evening of Saturday next at 8 o'clock. Troceeds in aid of the cricket club Fickets 25 cents, ladies free.
